

Trust beyond the era

Founded in 1896

The value we provide to society is based on the founder Zenjiro Yasuda's principle of "The customer always comes first" and the trust backed by the credibility we have cultivated in over 125 years of business since then.

Tokyo Tatemono Group Long-term Vision for 2030:

Becoming a Next-Generation Developer

The Group's aim is to be a good company for stakeholders by leveraging its businesses to help resolve social issues and achieve higher levels of growth as a company.

We aim to grow the Company and to create a prosperous society, taking pride in the level of trust placed in us for more than a century.